Three external signals. All pointing the same way.

WHY THIS. WHY NOW.

Three things changed in the last six months.

01

Handshake AI is going for the college funnel.

18M students priced as cheap RLHF labor.

02

A growing need for creative data

Need metrics for what successful UGC campaigns look like to train models for creative accuracy.

03

Meta CPMs (cost per thousand impressions) jumped 20%.

Brands are paying more than ever for advertisement this month and this coming year.

PAY FOR PROOF.

Pay creators for what their content drove. Not what they shipped.

INDUSTRY DEFAULT
THE BENCH	Posts shipped, video length, follower count.
THE METRIC	“Did you post on time?”
THE PAYOUT	Flat rate × volume. Effort, not outcome.

MERCOR CREATOR DOMAIN
THE BENCH	Web-scraped performance signals, refreshed per cycle.
THE METRIC	Engagement velocity, completion rate, comment quality, niche-fit.
THE PAYOUT	Performance multiplier × audience-fit. Outcome, not effort.

78%

Brands now prefer performance pay (vs. 52% in 2023).
Influencer Marketing Hub, 2026.

21–33%

of YouTube's feed is AI slop or brainrot content.

VIEWS DRIVEN

~500K

Across 10+ campaigns. Real eyeballs.

REVENUE GENERATED

~$25K

For the brands we ran. Pen on paper.

UCSB, Stanford, Berkeley, UCLA + more. Mercor can run it bigger.

THE PLAN

Build it over the summer. Ship it at Q4.

SUMMER

Internship build + PMF

Logan + Aarnav, the first Creator Domain Interns. Real campaigns running by Aug.

Q4

Deploy with Eng + Growth

Hand-off to Mercor's eng and growth teams. Domain row goes live.

WHAT WE NEED FROM YOU

- 01 Can Creator Experts ship as its own Domain row, with you owning expert onboarding?
- 02 Should we grade creator deliverables on Mercor's existing quality rubric?
- 03 What proof by August greenlights the Q4 hand-off to Eng + Growth?
